Dear Cousin,

It has been a long time since that I have heard from you. I will write a few lines to let you know that I am well and I hope that this will find you the same. Orin is sick and I am taking care of him. He was taking bleeding to the lungs. He had two spells at it. He is a little better now. I have been here four weeks. He has reenlisted and is going home when he gets able. I enlisted the 4th of January. We are boarding at a private house. He fares as well as he would at home. Write as soon as you get this and let me know all about the folks there. No more at this time.
